

CHINA NOW – Cambridge Dinner

June 4th 2008 (18.30 for 19.00)

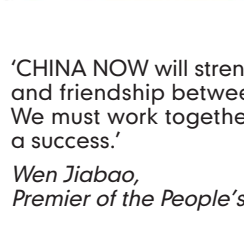

CHINA NOW is the largest festival of Chinese culture ever to take place in the UK. It is a UK-wide celebration of a vibrant, dynamic and fast-evolving nation – a captivating showcase of the very best of modern China.

This is your opportunity to learn more about the dynamic heart of modern China and be part of the largest celebrations of Chinese culture ever!

After dinner speaker:
SIR CHRISTOPHER HUM KCMG

Sir Christopher is one of Britain's leading China experts. Some 18 years of his diplomatic career were spent working in or on China, culminating in the appointment as British Ambassador in Beijing (2002-2005). In 2006, on retirement from the Diplomatic Service, was elected Master of Gonville and Caius College Cambridge.

'CHINA NOW will strengthen the understanding and friendship between China and the UK. We must work together to make the festival a success.'

*Wen Jiabao,
Premier of the People's Republic of China.*

The Dome, New Hall, University of Cambridge.

The main Dining Hall, affectionately known as 'The Dome', built by Chamberlin, Powell and Bon, is a spectacular example of the groundbreaking architecture of the 1960's and provides a truly unique College venue.

Venue: The Dome, New Hall, University of Cambridge.

Please email louise@marchpublishing.co.uk for sponsorship opportunities and updates on VIP guests and speakers.

Visit www.chinanow.org.uk for more information about CHINA NOW and go to www.marchpublishing.co.uk to book dinner tickets on-line.

sponsored by

International Month June 2008

supported by

China-Britain
Business Council
英中贸易协会

